

Fleurette Fernando

Director, MA Program in Arts Leadership, University of Houston

Fleurette is the founding director of the M.A. in Arts Leadership Program at University of Houston. She is a graduate of Claude Watson School for the Arts, the National Theatre School of Canada's Directing Program and holds an M.F.A. in directing from York University. Fernando has worked as a director, choreographer, educator and arts administrator in arts organizations across Canada and the U.S. She is a former executive director of Katy Visual and Performing Arts Center and previously served as the artistic director of Montreal's Black Theatre Workshop. Most recently, she served as the director of grants for Houston Arts Alliance and as an adjunct professor of theatre studies at the University of Houston, Downtown.