

Kevin Yu

Musician and Founder, Coregami

Kevin is the Founder of Coregami, the first technical formal wear company in the world. He began his career in the Silicon Valley with Cisco Systems and continued at KPMG and Atmos Energy in various roles. As a musician, he has served as the Concertmaster of the UT University Orchestra and Principal of the Masters Sinfonia in San Francisco. Today, he performs with Las Colinas Symphony. In 2005, his deployment of a foreign aid platform in India led to the Rotary International Service Award. In 2011, he was one of 55 Americans designated a Marshall Fellow by the German Marshall Fund. Kevin is on the Board of GDYO and has served as the Commissioner on the Texas Commission on the Arts. He is a graduate of the UT Austin McCombs School of Business.